

Your coupon or informational attachment.

Use your website to automatically:

1. Gather your visitors information
2. Email you with their information in a format that you can import to your CMS
3. Email the visitor with some attachment that motivates them to give you their information.